

The perfect place for culture enthusiasts

MuseumsQuartier Wien offers world-class museums, year-round cultural events and a vibrant food & shopping scene in the heart of Vienna.

Need to Know

- MuseumsQuartier Wien (MQ) is one of the largest cultural districts for contemporary art and culture in the world, comprising 60 cultural institutions spread out over 90,000 m².
- The mumok is the largest museum of modern and contemporary art in Central Europe and houses important works from Modernism, Pop Art to Viennese Actionism. Find its diverse programme and current exhibitions on the website.
- The Leopold Museum is MQ's most visited museum and houses one of the most important collections of modern Austrian art, spanning Viennese Jugendstil, Wiener Werkstätte and Expressionism.
- The MQ's interior courtyard is an inviting space for all and the perfect place to enjoy the architecture and creative buzz of the district.

Best time to travel

All year round

One Day in Vienna

Morning

Explore the mumok. Its impressive collection of works includes entries by international artists such as Max Ernst, René Magritte, Pablo Picasso, Cindy Sherman and Andy Warhol. For lunch, dine on Viennese classics with a twist at Glacis Beisl.

Afternoon

Just across the courtyard at Leopold Museum, discover the world's largest collection of Egon Schiele works, masterworks by

Gustav Klimt, founder of the Secession, & objects renowned as milestones in the history of international design by the likes of Josef Hoffmann and Kolo Moser.

Evening

Visit MQ kantine for drinks & music.

Two Days in Vienna

Morning

There are plenty of smaller exhibition spaces to discover such as the Kunsthalles Wien or the Tanzquartier Wien, a state-of-the-art international centre for contemporary dance.

Afternoon

Check what's on. Throughout the year, MQ hosts an exciting range of concerts, film festivals, performances & other cultural events.

Had enough of cultural activities? Enjoy some shopping & browse through the numerous arts stores.
